The following bills were then introduced, read first time and referred to the Committee indicated:

By Senator Sherman:

S. B. No. 914, A bill to be entitled "An Act amending Section 22a, Article 7150, Revised Civil Statutes, 1925, of Texas, as amended; exempting from taxation certain property owned by non-profit corporations and used for the promotion of aquatic sports; and declaring an emergency."

To Committee on State Affairs.

By Senator Brooks:

S. B. No. 915, A bill to be entitled "An Act making it a felony to transport more than a certain amount of copper pipe, copper wire, or copper cable in certain situations, and prescribing the penalty for violation; amending Sections 2 and 3, Chapter 457, Acts of the 60th Legislature, Regular Session, 1967 (Article 1436g, Vernon's Texas Penal Code); and declaring an emergency."

To Committee on Transportation.

By Senator Bernal:

S. B. No. 916, A bill to be entitled "An Act relating to establishing and maintaining of a county law library in certain counties; and declaring an emergency."

To Committee on County, District and Urban Affairs.

Senate Bill 281 on Second Reading

On motion of Senator Mauzy and by unanimous consent, the regular order of business was suspended to take up for consideration at this time on its second reading and passage to engrossment:

S. B. No. 281, A bill to be entitled "An Act amending Section 12, Chapter 292, Acts of the 61st Legislature, Regular Session, 1969 (codified as Article 6252-19, Vernon's Annotated Civil Statutes), known as the Texas Tort Claim Act, relating to making remedies against units of government exclusive in certain cases; and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time.

Senator Mauzy offered the following Committee Amendment to the bill:

Amend S. B. 281 by striking out all below the enacting clause and substituting in lieu thereof the following:

Section 1. Section 12, Chapter 292, Acts of the 61st Legislature, Regular Session, 1969 (codified in Article 6252-19, Vernon's Annotated Civil Statutes), known as the Texas Tort Claim Act, is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Section 12. (a) The judgment of settlement in an action of claim under this Act shall constitute a complete bar to any action by the claimant, by reason of the same subject matter, against the employee or a unit of government whose act or omission gave rise to the claim.

(b) The State or a political subdivision may not require any employee to purchase liability insurance as a condition of his employment where the State or political subdivision is insured by a policy of liability insurance.

(c) The remedy against units of government provided by this Act for personal injury or death, resulting from the operation by any employee of a unit of government of any motor vehicle or motor driven equipment while acting within the scope of his office or employment, shall hereafter be exclusive of any other civil action or proceeding by reason of the same subject matter against the employee or his estate whose act or omission gave rise to the claim to the extent that the unit of government would be liable under the Act."

Sec. 2. The crowded condition of the calendars in both houses plus the fact that the present law has caused injustices, increases the importance of this amendment and creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read on three several days in each house be suspended, and this Rule is hereby suspended, and this Act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

The Committee Amendment was read and was adopted.

On motion of Senator Mauzy and by unanimous consent, the caption was amended to conform to the body of the bill as amended.

The bill as amended was passed to engrossment.
